

24 PRAYER: REFLECTIONS

 Here are some ideas and scriptures to guide your hour of prayer.

As the Easter season has passed, it is a good time to reflect on the work God has been doing in each one of our lives. Are you in the same place you were two months ago? If not, why not? What has changed? What about our community? The world that we live in?

As you pray this weekend, you are invited to reflect on your faith journey, on the work that Christ has done in your life. The Art Gallery is open. You are invited to take some time with the images and to use the questions below to reflect again, on God's love for you.

The tables in the sanctuary also tell a story – of a baby, a crucified Savior and a Risen King, the story of a God who loves each person in this world. You are also invited to take some time at the tables and to use the questions below to reflect on God's amazing love for you. Or, you may want to read passages from the Easter Meditations Book to guide your prayer time.

An updated list of those in and around our faith community is also available.
Go where God leads you.

God made you. God loves you. God gave you gifts, talents and a personality.

Where is God calling you?

Where have you come from? Where are you going?

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

What story do you see?

Is it the story of someone else, or of you?

What emotions does the picture evoke in you? Why?

How is your life changed because of this story?

What do you want others to see when they look at you?

What is your prayer to God this day?
